SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Aug. 13.

In spite of the continued warm weather the garrison seems to have retained its interest in things social, and this week has been especially full of charming entertainments. On Tuesday evening, Capt. and Mrs. Burnett gave a delightful dinner, entertaining for Maj. and Mrs. Gleason Van Poole, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey, Miss Laura Williams, Miss Anne Carpenter, Capt. Harry Williams and Lieut. Walter Robertson, James Uilo and Carl Posner.

On the same evening, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Janda gave a dinner for the Messes Carrie and Esther McMahon, who are staying with them for a few days, other guests being Lieut. Guy Chipman and Olin Sadtler.

Lieut. and Mrs. John Hinemom entertained at dinner for Lieut. and Mrs. Irving Phillips, Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous and Lieut. and Mrs. John True.

Col. and Mrs. Ayers had as dinner guests on the same evening Miss Ruth Barclay and Lieut. V. V. Enyart and Charles Little.

All these parties later met in the Pavilion, making the hop a greatly enjoyed one.

Mrs. Henry Wygant entertained at luncheon on Thursday, which was one of the most attractive events of the week. Twenty-one ladies of the garrison were invited to partake of Mrs. Wygant's hospitality. Green and white were chosen for the color scheme and was very prettily carried out in white carnations and delicate maiden-hair ferns, which not only formed the decorations for the two tables at which the luncheon was served, but in many graceful clusters, in vases and bowls, were disposed throughout the living rooms of the Wygant quarters. Echoing the green and white note, little Japanese maidens, in green and white kimono, stood at each place bearing the name cards. Those present were Mesdames L. W. V. Kenyon, Edmund Butts, W. Boyd, Henry Lantry, Joseph Daly, David Stone, Matthew Palen, George Crusan, Charles Willard, George Apple, Donald Hay, Stanley Sinclair, Raymond Bliss, Amicus Mitchell, William Majes, George Harrison, John Hunt, Robert Harbold, Caldwell, and the Messes Hazel Harrison and Anna Bell Farrington.

On Saturday Lieut. and Mrs. Irving Phillips gave a delightful supper after a party at the movies, the guests being Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Janda, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey, Capt. and Mrs. Frank Burnett, Capt. and Mrs. Campbell King, Lieut. and Mrs. George Harris, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph Topham, Lieut. and Mrs. John True, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hinemom, Lieut. and Mrs. Jesse Ladd, Lieut. and Mrs. Franklin Rice, Maj. Ralph Harrison, Dr. and Mrs. Albert White, the Messes Welcome Ayer, Laura Williams, Ruth Barclay, Anne Carpenter, Lieut. V. V. Enyart, Carl Posner, Charles Little, James Uilo and Haig Shekarian. An attractive feature of the Saturday evening movie is the clearing of the hall after the pictures and the informal dancing, which is always enjoyed.

On Saturday last, Mrs. Joseph Daly entertained at "tea" for Mrs. Frazer and the Messes Constance and Marjorie Frazer of Melbourne, Australia, who were transient visitors in Honolulu while the Wilhelmias was in port. Invited to meet these ladies were the Messes Carrie and Esther McMahon, and Lieut. Kenny Palmer, Freeman Bowley, Walter Winton, Wilbur Rogers and Joseph Andrews.

On Monday Mrs. Daly entertained for the Messes Ritchie of Sydney, Australia, and Miss Orgil of Memphis, Tennessee, who were also fellow passengers on the Wilhelmias, inviting to meet them the same young people of the garrison.

On Wednesday there were two large hop suppers given in the cavalry-artillery cantonment, which took place before the mounted service hop. Capt. and Mrs. John J. Boniface were hosts at one, whose guests were Maj. and Mrs. George Bailey, Maj. Ralph Harrison, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Crusan, Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Naylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Alexander Johnson, Mr. Mix and Miss Beatrice Mix, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Harbold, Miss Anne Carpenter, Col. George Sands, Capt. Chas. Ferris, Lieut. Mack Garr, Lieut. Wallace Hall and Lieut. Freeman Bowley.

Lieut. and Mrs. John True entertained at a chafing dish supper after the hop, their guests being Capt. and Mrs. Frank Burnett, Dr. and Mrs. Albert White, Lieut. and Mrs. Irving Phillips, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hinemom, Lieut. and Mrs. Sumter Bratton, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Naylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Franklin Rice, the Messes Laura Williams, Anne Carpenter, Dorothy Forsyth, Ruth Barclay, Welcome Ayer, and Lieut. James Uilo, V. V. Enyart, Olin Sadtler, Haig Shekarian, Charles Little, William McCulloch and Walter Robertson.

During the stay in port of the Thomas, Lieut. and Mrs. George S. Gay will have as house-guests Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Meyers, who are en route to Manila to join the 2nd Mountain Artillery. Capt. Charles Ferris was host at luncheon on Thursday at the popular Tavern, entertaining Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Myers and Lieut. and Mrs. George Gay.

Lieut. and Mrs. Louie Beard were also supper hosts, entertaining for Capt. and Mrs. David Stone, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Willard, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Cassels, Lieut. and Mrs. William Gano, the Messes Lila McDonald, Anna Bell Farrington, Irene Farrell and Lieut. Guy Chipman, Olin Sadtler, Charles Haverkamp, Wallace Philson, Seth Schofield and Ivens Jones. The two large tables at which the guests were seated had as decorations bowls of yellow nasturtiums and ferns.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Willard gave a dinner on Friday evening in honor of Capt. and Mrs. David Stone, who leave the post on Monday to take up their residence in Honolulu. Other guests were Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Crusan, Capt. and Mrs. Campbell King, Col. Carl Reichmann, Capt. J. Seven ladies were invited to participate in the always fascinating game, namely Mesdames William Cruikshank, Charles Willard, Jerome Pillow, Livingston Watrous, Charles Naylor, William Nalle, and Harold Naylor. The table prizes were dainty cases of powder in silk covers of Dresden colorings; these were won by Mesdames Cruikshank and Harold Naylor.

Lieut. and Mrs. Louis H. McKinlay were hosts at a delightful dinner on Tuesday, when they entertained for Col. and Mrs. L. W. V. Kenyon, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Crusan and Lieut. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow. The round table was very attractive in its decorations of pink and lavender sweet peas and ferns, and lighted by the soft radiance from silver candelabra.

Miss Mabel Lightfoot of Wahiawa is visiting Miss Marge A. Pealy for a few days this week.
